Subject: Preservation of Conservation Funding a Top Priority for Farm Bill in Ohio's 11th Congressional District

Date: November 3, 2023

A new Public Policy Polling survey finds that preserving conservation funding is Ohio 11th Congressional District voters' top priority for this year's Farm Bill. A plurality of voters (40%) think preserving conservation funding for all farmers should be Rep. Shontel Brown's top priority, rather than increasing government subsidies for certain commodities (7%) or increasing funding for the federal crop insurance program (4%).

Half of voters (50%) are opposed to cutting funding for USDA conservation programs, compared to just 18% who support it. Voting to cut conservation funding would also be detrimental to Rep. Brown's re-election efforts, with more than a third of voters (39%) saying they would be less likely to vote for her should she support a Farm Bill that cuts these programs. Just 10% say they would be more likely to.

Nearly a third of OH-11 voters (32%) say they are following news about the Farm Bill at least somewhat closely, and 6% say they or an immediate family member work in farming or the agricultural industry. These voters are at least as likely if not even more likely to support conservation funding in the Farm Bill than the overall electorate, and they are likely to vote accordingly in the next election.

- 67% of voters who follow the Farm Bill news very closely and 38% who have been following it somewhat closely say preserving conservation funding should be the top priority, rather than increasing subsidies for certain commodities (3% for those following the bill very closely and 16% for those following somewhat closely) or increasing funding for the federal crop insurance program (14% for those following the bill very closely and 5% for those following it somewhat closely).
- 50% of voters following the bill very closely and 62% following it somewhat closely oppose cutting funding for USDA conservation programs.

- 46% of voters who work in farming or the agriculture industry, or have immediate family working in the industry, say preserving conservation funding should be Rep. Brown's top priority in the Farm Bill.
- 34% of voters working in agriculture say they are less likely to vote for Rep. Brown in the next election if she supports a Farm Bill that cuts conservation funding, while only 10% would be more likely.

Before being asked about conservation programs, 25% of voters expressed general support for reauthorizing the Farm Bill, to 10% opposed and 65% having no opinion. Supporters are the most adamant that conservation programs be spared any cuts, with 56% labeling those programs their top priority, 76% opposing cuts, and 54% saying a vote for a Farm Bill with slashed conservation funding would make them less likely to support Brown's re-election, while only 7% would be more likely.

Public Policy Polling surveyed 617 voters from Ohio's 11th Congressional District from October 27-28, 2023. The margin of error is +/- 4.0%. 50% of interviews for the survey were conducted by text message and 50% by telephone.

Ohio CD 11 Survey Results

Q1 Do you approve or disapprove of President Joe Biden's job performance?

Approve 62%
Disapprove 25%

Q7 Do you support or oppose cutting funding for USDA conservation programs, which farmers rely on to improve their land and water?

Support 18%
Oppose 50%
Not sure 32%

Q8 While all farmers are eligible for USDA conservation programs, they are currently so poorly funded that they have to turn away 3 or 4 times as many farmers as they accept. In the current Farm Bill negotiations, some members of Congress are trying to take even more funding from these programs and give it to the biggest corporate farms as government subsidies. Do you support or oppose cutting funding for conservation programs so the government can further subsidize large factory farms?

Support 12%
Oppose 62%
